It is all about Damascene Heritage

Hundreds of years ago a magnificent craft was born and flourished throughout the history in old Damascus. It continues till our present time, preserved by our skilled people.

We are Mayzar institution brings you the excellence old Damascene heritage. All of our products are 100% hand made. All the small pieces of every detail were put together by highly skilled handicraft.

Currently, we have chosen a variety of high quality, artistic Damascene handmade products. This is why; each piece is unique in its components. Since these products live for a long time; we have acquired some antique which has a historical value made by masters of this craft.

One of the most important features of Damascene mosaic is the mother of pearl embedding. This material is the shiny colored part of seashells. Even sea shells have many kinds, features and colors.

You can distinguish between colored wood and mother of pearl the way light reflects. Cutting and shaping the seashell does not only needs skill but also accuracy. Aligning all these small pieces together is with great accuracy gives and the required finishing that we are presenting to our customers. Side by side with wood carving, every product is a mater piece.

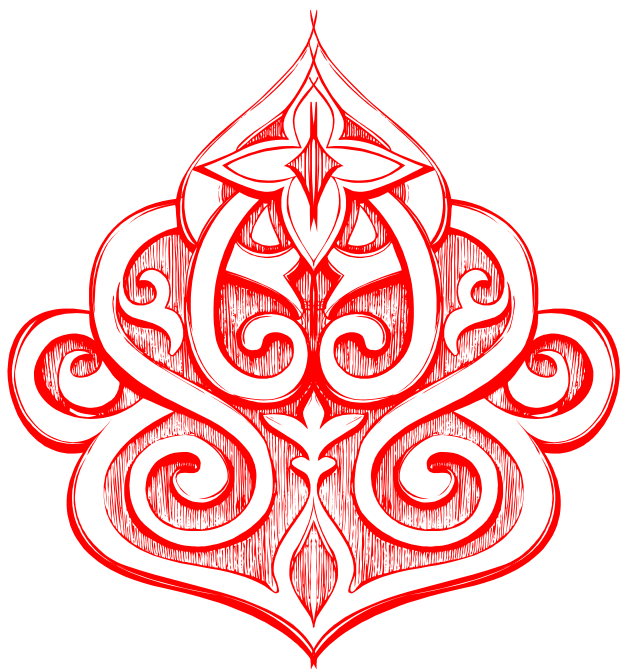

Different types of wood have been used. These are chosen according to density, strength and color. The main body of each piece is made of Ash wood. The rest are used for decoration such as walnut, Rose, Bamboo, ebony and lemon wood.
